

Helen E. Quick

Partner

Helen Quick is a partner of Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP in Washington, D.C., where she practices in venture capital and private equity, finance, mergers and acquisitions, and general corporate representation of emerging and growth stage companies with a strong focus on the healthcare sector.

Ms. Quick's value proposition to her clients is one that is rooted in her business experience as a former in-house General Counsel and VP of Business Development for 2 venture backed companies. Through personal, partner-level attention, and the collective contacts and proprietary deal flow from all of her partners working collaboratively, she drives value to her clients that enables them to grow, prosper, and succeed on their terms.

Helen serves on the national Board of Advisors of WLMA (Women's Leadership and Mentoring Alliance) and on the DC Steering Committee of WAVE (Women in Venture and Equity). She is passionate about advancing women towards the achievement of their personal and professional goals and is the co-author of the original editions of "Answering the Call – Understanding the Duties, Rights and Responsibilities of Board Service" a primer for women seeking to be appointed to corporate boards.
